UNION SERVICES DRAW A LARGE CONGREGATION

Sentiment of Day Remembered in Talks Given Last Night at the First Christian Church

SERMON PREACHED BY BAPTIST PASTOR

Union Thanksgiving services were held by Charleroi Protestant churches at the First Christian church last evening. A large congregation was present and heard Rev. C. S. Joshua preach on the topic, "How Should We Give Thanks." Other ministers took part in the services. A collection was taken for charitable work in Charleroi and the sum of $20. was realized. This will be added to the fund already in the hands of the poor committee. Rev. Joshua's sermon was concerning the real sentiment of the day, and during his entire discourse he held to the general theme. Rev. L. W. Shey of St. Mary's Episcopal church gave the invocation and the benediction. Rev. J. E. Charles of the French Presbyterian church gave a brief outline of the origin of Thanksgiving Day and spoke of the President's proclamation. Rev. F. A. Richards of the Methodist church read the scripture lesson and Rev. J. T. Hackett of the First Presbyterian church made a prayer and a report of action taken by the Ministerial Association for poor work in this town. It is desired that a committee be appointed, one from the Ministerial Association, one from each of the churches, one from the Business Men's association and one from council to have charge of the work.

HAS TAUGHT IN COUNTY FOR YEARS

Prof. Daniel Gayman Leaves With Daughter for West

WILL ENTER UNIVERSITY

Yesterday afternoon of Prof. Daniel Gayman, until lately a teacher in the Cokeburg schools, and formerly a Charleroi high school teacher, with his daughter Miss Ida Gayman, also a former teacher in the Charleroi schools, and Miss Lucy Leatherman, left for San Diego, Cal., to remain for six months or so.

Miss Gayman and her aunt expect to reside in San Diego this winter. Mr. Gayman will enter the California University and take up the study of chemistry, geology and further pursue the study of German.

Miss Gayman has not been in the best of health during the past year or more, and last October was forced to relinquish her position as a teacher here. Mr. Gayman gave up his position to Cokeburg to go with her west, and not wishing to be idle determined to enter California University.

Mr. Gayman has been in the teaching profession for the past 34 years. He began teaching in Licking county, Ohio, in 1873. His first public school in Washington county was taught at the Barr school, West Bethlehem township, in 1877-78. Since that time Mr. Gayman has taught in Washington, Greene, Fayette, Allegheny and Beaver counties.

He graduated the largest class that ever was given diplomas from the Charleroi high school.

Carver

Margaret A. Carver, the 12 weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carver of 219 Fallowfield avenue, died yesterday morning at 11:20 o'clock from pneumonia. The funeral will be held Saturday and interment will be in the Monongahela cemetery.

CHARLEROI OBSERVES THANKSGIVING IN THE USUAL QUIET MANNER

Many Visit Friends or Seek Recreation Away From the Scene of Their Daily Labors

Thanksgiving was generally observed in Charleroi yesterday by a suspension of business wherever it was possible. In order to accommodate the holiday trade many of the stores were open the preceding evening, and for a while yesterday forenoon. The banks were closed and the postoffice observed the usual holiday regulations. The Imperial Bottle factory shut down but the Pittsburgh Plate Glass and Macbeth-Evans factories were in operation as usual. The Charleroi Coal Works shut down as did most of the mines along the river that are now in operation.

TROUBLE AT GRAVE MAY BRING COMPLICATIONS

Legal Action Taken as Result of Disagreement During Funeral of Young Italian Yesterday

OTHER LAWSUITS MAY FOLLOW SHORTLY

As the result of a disagreement during the funeral of a young Italian at Calvary cemetery yesterday afternoon, legal action has been taken against Dominick Monack, a member of the firm of Monack Bros., wholesale produce dealers, and a hearing will follow. The warrant was sworn out by Daniel Shields, custodian of the cemetery, charging assault and battery on behalf of priests concerned, and disorderly conduct on behalf of the cemetery association.

The affair occurred, it is said, from a difference of opinion regarding certain matters between Monack and Rev. Joseph Danesi, pastor of the Mother of Sorrows church and Rev. Trefny, pastor of St. Cyril and Methodius Slovak church, who was assisting Father Joseph Danesi in the funeral services. It is said that several heated words passed which resulted in blows. It is believed that other suits will follow the one already brought. Monack's brother, James Monack, furnished bail in the sum of $300 on his appearance before Justice of the Peace Rice this afternoon.

MINES ARE STARTING

Barges Being Brought From South for Reloading

BLACK DIAMOND RESUMES

With considerable coal shipped from the Pittsburgh harbors south and the subsequent return of empty barges, several of the river shipping mines along the valley have been able to resume operations after being closed down for some days. Among this number is the Black Diamond mine. The Black Diamond mine, which employs about 50 men, was closed down for some time. Monagh, Coal Bluff and the Cincinnati mines, near Monongahela, are also working. The Catsburg mine is closed temporarily.

YOUNG ITALIAN BURIED THURSDAY

Funeral of Prominent Man Was Largely Attended by Friends.

The funeral of Joseph Baker, the young Italian who died in the Mercy Hospital Tuesday after having suffered for ten weeks of injuries received in the Charleroi Coal mine, was held Thanksgiving afternoon from the Mother of Sorrows Italian Catholic church, and was one of the most largely attended Italian funeral service in Charleroi. Interment was in the Calvary cemetery. Many Catholic societies turned out.

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL TEA PARTY IS GREAT EVENT

Immense Crowd From All Along the Valley in Attendance at Affair at St. Jerome's Congregation

MANY METHODS TO ENTERTAIN GUESTS

One of the largest attended social events in the history of St. Jerome's Catholic congregation was held at Turner Hall Wednesday night, the occasion being the fourteenth annual tea party, supper and dance. A large sum was realized from the benefit affair, the money to be devoted to the building fund. The supper was served from 5 to 8 o'clock by the ladies of the church, and the tables were crowded at all times. During the evening in various part of the hall there were booths arranged for a means of entertainment, and a feature was the orange tree. This caused great amusement, and many surprises were the lot of those who investigated its mysteries.

Dancing was from the hour of 8 o'clock until 1, and it is estimated that there were between 200 and 300 couples on the floor. Jenkins' Orchestra furnished the music. Altogether that affair was one of the most pleasing social events ever held by any church or society in Charleroi. The members of each Catholic society in Charleroi constituted the committee in charge.

THANKSGIVING IN THE SCHOOLS

Programs Rendered by Children of the Various Grades

MANY VISITS ARE MADE

The Stratford literary society of the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth grades of the public schools held their first meeting of the year at School Hall Wednesday when a Thanksgiving program was rendered. The meeting opened with the song, "Old Glory" conducted by Prof. I. T. Daniel.

Prominent places on the program were occupied by Lawrence Bailey, Miss Lottie Hough and Marjorie Williams. The debate on the question, "Resolved, That the Sioux War was a disgrace to the country," was decided in favor of the affirmative upheld by Warren Trew and Edwin Booth. The negative debaters were Edwin Easton and George Osborne. The officers of the Stratford Literary society are: President, Warren Trew; secretary, Mary Gass; reporter, Joseph Franks.

WELL KNOWN MONESSEN FIRM LIQUIDATING

A little ripple of excitement was caused yesterday in Monessen by the closing of one of the largest clothing establishments of the town. It was ascertained that buying too heavily caused the trouble. This made necessary the drastic sale which commenced today at the store, 505 Schonmaker avenue, Monessen, where former prices have been unmercifully slaughtered in a strong and powerful endeavor to reduce stocks at any and all cost. Street car fare will be paid on purchases as small as $1.50 to give the buyers of Charleroi the same opportunity accorded the public in Monessen. Money refunded for any reason.

Mr. and Mrs. Sample and Miss Flossie Sample of Wilkesburg were guests at the Wilbur Hotel yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coles.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brown were guests from McKeesport of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Flickinger of McKean avenue yesterday.

ROADS THE SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

Fallowfield Township Putting Highways in Condition

NOW UP TO CHARLEROI

"Coming as I do from a rural county I appreciate the importance of good roads," John K. Tener in accepting the nomination for Governor, June 22, 1910.

While Governor-elect Tener can only in a general way recommend to the Legislative body of the State, the importance of good roads, it is up to the local authorities to put in practical operation the suggestion of the Governor-elect.

The supervisors of Fallowfield township deserve especial mention because they are engaged at the present time in making a road that will fill all the requirements suggested by Mr. Tener, and it is now up to the borough of Charleroi to make good the boast that has gone over the country broadcast that it is a town of up-to-date ideas.

The Lincoln avenue extension that connects with the Fallowfield township road is in a wretched condition. There is more traffic over that part of the road than on any country road in the county. Is Charleroi going to let Fallowfield township lead her in progressive acts that are of such vital importance the well being of the town?

Edward Callaghan, Fallowfield, Pa. Nov. 2, 1910.

Home Capital

In urging the establishment of more industries for the promotion and advancement of Uniontown, the Herald of that town advises the investment of home capital, rather than the payment of bonuses to induce outside concerns to come in. Uniontown is particularly favored in having an unusual number of wealthy people for a town of its size, and the Herald's suggestion that these capitalists seek and create an investment for their surplus funds in their home community, instead of going outside for an investment, is most timely.
The same argument that applies to Uniontown also applies to Charleroi.
Our town, however, lacks the accumulations of capital that Uniontown has,
but nevertheless has many thrifty people whose savings constitute a big aggregate. During the past years large sums of money from Charleroi have been invested in outside enterprises and projections, many of which have proven doubtful. The same investments in some legitimate enterprises at home would not only have had every opportunity of success, but would have yielded a lawful percentage on the investment.
Charleroi cannot hope to subsidize any more big industrial concerns to come here; neither can it offer better opportunities than many of the rural communities where labor is cheaper taxes lower, and transportation facilities equally as good. What Charleroi gets from this time on, the citizens and local capitalists must create or promote. The field is open, and on this opportunity to a large degree depends Charleroi's future progress and prosperity.

It Is Coming

Postmaster General McCook will make another tour of inspection to introduce the parcel post in this country. It is stated that the Postmaster General will recommend the establishment of this service in the forthcoming report and ask Congress to authorize the use of the national routes of parcels weighing as high as 11 pounds which is the weight limit for the international parcel post. This form of service, it is maintained, can be conducted with little if any additional expense to the Government. It will not require the appointment of more carriers, for those already employed have the necessary equipment in the way of horses and wagons to distribute the parcel as well as the ordinary mail. Rarely is the latter of sufficient volume to take up more than a small portion of the mail space in the carrier's wagon. A rural parcels post of the kind proposed, if successfully conducted, probably would lead the department to attempt a more general system.

Investigation has disclosed the fact that the most determined opposition to the parcels post does not come from the Express Trust, but from the merchants and trades people of the
who see in the parcels post undue competition with the big mail order houses and department stores of the larger cities. It has been divulged that organized and systematic opposition, which has been more or less secret, has been successfully directed against the parcels post project, and it is this influence which has had a more potent influence upon the Congressman than that of the express companies. This opposition, however, is not warranted in view of the larger benefits the parcels post will bring to the whole country, and when the situation is thoroughly understood by the people, the demand for the parcels post will so greatly overshadow the opposition that the system will be speedily forthcoming.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Notions are mostly nice things to have, the final result is alone being considered. The Pittsburg Railway com-took a notion to fix the bridge at the upper end of town and that notion causes people to walk in mud temporarily but the notion will aid traffic.

The Pittsburg Dispatch and the Pittsburg Gazette Times are actually quarreling. And all about a thing of such minor importance, as the Senatorship.

If hens were more plentiful and laid more eggs, ordinary people might have hen fruit for breakfast every morning. Also if it were not for the high cost of living, most of the people might have turkey for Thanksgiving.

It's a question which is the more desirable time of the year, summer or winter. In the summer you have vacation, and in the winter you have Christmas. One is about as bad as the other on the average pocketbook.

The suggestion that John D. give away that $29,000,000 that he was fined and didn't pay, has been received with cold disdain. But, after all, the money is tainted.

The statement is made now that the college girl has the best chance of marrying well. They have learned more how to deceive the men.

The brush league pitcher now repairs
To his old job of collecting fares.
Thus from his eminence he falls,
And from his glory swerves—
All summer he was curving balls While now he's bawling curves.

Doc Cook says he'll prove it. Mt.
McKinley is still an objective point.

It is said that the poets of America are organizing. But, it might be remarked, not for higher wages, just for wages.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

Local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

CLEAN BILL FOR THE LEADERS

Principles and Policies of Republican Party Sustained by the Voters

SELF-SEEKING IS A FAILURE

Mushroom Parties Have Come and Gone With Great Regularity to Satisfy Personal Greed and Grievances Senator Oliver Announces For Re-election.

John K. Tener was elected Governor of Pennsylvania by a plurality of 23,484 votes. John M. Reynolds, the Republican lieutenant governor-elect, had a plurality of 122,018, and Henry Houck was re-elected secretary of internal affairs by a plurality of 175,892 votes. The mendacious raid made upon Mr. Tener at the wind-up of the contest reduced his plurality considerably, but the votes given to the other candidates on the Republican State ticket established beyond question that the fight was personal and in no sense political. The principles and policies of the regular Republican organization in Pennsylvania was approved in a substantial way. The leadership of the Republican party in the State was given a clear bill of health and in the reduced plurality given to Mr. Tener the voters were given an exhibition of what threatens when the self-seekers unloose their mud batteries to clear the way for their own advancement. In the entire State the official figures show that Mr. Tener received 415,611 votes. Edwin S. Stuart, four years ago received 506,415 votes, or 90,807 votes more than were cast for Mr. Tener. Four years ago Lewis Emery, Jr., a frantic reformer and the accepted leader of the political discontents of the State, polled 458,054 votes, or 75,927 more votes than were polled for W. H. Berry at the recent State contest. John M. Reynolds, the lieutenant governor-elect, received a total of 429,874 votes while D. Clarence Gibbons, the perpetual place-hunter who has been whipped for every place from ward constable to the office to which he last aspired, received 307,856 votes, or a difference of 122,018 in favor of Mr. Reynolds. Hardly sufficient margin of justification for the wrecking of the Democracy of the State.

There are indications, however, that the Democracy will refuse to stay wrecked. That ancient organization really fattens on defeat and political parties have come and gone with great regularity ever since the voters of the State refused to send John Wana-maker to the United States Senate. With Mr. Wana-maker in the United States Senate the now discontents would have been the regular organization and until that wonderful feat is in some way accomplished political parties must be expected to come and go just so long as the voters are willing to be fooled and tricked into following the false pretenders. The floating of new political parties in Pennsylvania became a fine art away back in 1898. Before that time there had been the Greenback party, the Prohibition party and the Republican and Democratic parties. The Greenbackers retired that year and in their place came the Peoples party, the Liberty party, the Honest Government party and the Socialist party. The several new parties died during the next four years and in their stead came the Anti-Masonic party, the Citizens party, the Ballot Reform party and the Socialist party without the labor contingent. During the next four years a majority of these mushroom parties gave up the ghost and were followed by the Commonwealth party, the Lincoln party, the Reform party and the Union Labor party. And now, at the present moment, or at least at the recent State contest we find that several of the politicalisms have passed to eternal rest and in their stead we have the Keystone party, the Industrialists party and the Workmen's League party with the Republican party, the Democratic party, the Prohibition party and the Socialists still alive and kicking and likely to be in that position after the organized discontents have shifted about for some name which may deal with more force to the voters. For the time, however, the Democrats must take their place with the others. Humiliated and beaten they have been the victims of ambitions which have been dangerous to their organization.

George T. Oliver has formally announced his candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate. The Republican caucus to select a candidate for United States Senator will be held on January 2, the day before the Legislature organizes, and the election will be held January 17, in separate houses, the same day Governor-elect John K. Tener is inaugurated.

Mr. Oliver's introduction into the work and routine of the Senate of the United States was at a most important period as far as the industries of Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania were concerned. Started on March 17 of last year and seven in two days later, it was but a few weeks before the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill was sent over from the House of Representatives. Almost every industry in Pennsylvania was assailed by middle-west insurgents and tariff-for-revenue-only Democrats during the prolonged debate in the Senate. Senator Oliver took an active part in the discussions over schedules and, with Senator Boies Penrose and the Republican majority, successfully resisted every effort to reduce protective rates below the danger line.

Consumption

Anyone interested in the cure of Consumption should get one of the booklets telling of recoveries by the use of Eckman's Alternative.

Coughs, Stomach Colds and Pneumonia may be the beginning of more serious troubles—Eckman's Alternative is the effective remedy. Read Mr. Kanaly's statement: "For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Consumption by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit.

At Christmas time, 1906, I was not expected to live. Calling another physician, he advised the use of Eckman's Alternative, which I took with excellent results and was entirely cured.

During the past year I have gained 5 lbs. I go out in all weathers and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alternative."

Union Thanksgiving services were held by Charleroi Protestant churches at the First Christian church last evening. A large congregation was present and heard Rev. C. S. Joshua preach on the topic, "How Should We Give Thanks." Other ministers took part in the services. A collection was taken for charitable work in Charleroi and the sum of $20 was realized. This will be added to the fund already in the hands of the poor committee. Rev. Joshua's sermon was concerning the real sentiment of the day, and during his entire discourse he held to the general theme.

Thanksgiving was generally observed in Charleroi yesterday by a suspension of business wherever it was possible. In order to accommodate the holiday trade many of the stores were open the preceding evening, and for a while yesterday forenoon. The banks were closed and the postoffice observed the usual holiday regulations. The Imperial Bottle factory shut down but the Pittsburg Plate Glass and Macbeth-Evans factories were in operation as usual. The Charleroi Coal Works shut down as did most of the mines.

Many people passed through town going and coming to different localities to spend Thanksgiving with friends, or in search of recreation. The trains and trolley cars were crowded and all transportation lines enjoyed a big traffic. During the day the town presented a Sunday appearance, but in the evening a rush was made for the theatres and all played to capacity houses. Mild and balmy weather made the day all the more enjoyable and was particularly favorable for outdoor sports and outings.

As the result of a disagreement during the funeral of a young Italian at Calvary cemetery yesterday afternoon, legal action has been taken against Dominick Monack, a member of the firm of Monack Bros., wholesale produce dealers, and a hearing will follow. The warrant was sworn out by Daniel Shields, custodian of the cemetery, charging assault and battery on behalf of priests concerned, and disorderly conduct on behalf of the cemetery association. The affair occurred, it is said, from a difference of opinion regarding certain matters between Monack and Rev. Joseph Danesi, pastor of the Mother of Sorrows church and Rev. Trefny, pastor of St. Cyril and Methodius Slovak church, who was assisting Father Joseph Danesi in the funeral services. It is said that several heated words passed which resulted in blows. It is believed that other suits will follow the one already brought. Monack's brother, James Monack, furnished bail in the sum of $300 on his appearance before Justice of the Peace Rice this afternoon.

The funeral of Joseph Baker, the young Italian who died in the Mercy Hospital Tuesday after having suffered for ten weeks of injuries received in the Charleroi Coal mine, was held Thanksgiving afternoon from the Mother of Sorrows Italian Catholic church, and was one of the most largely attended Italian funeral services in Charleroi. FOURTEENTH ANNUAL TEA PARTY IS GREAT EVENT

One of the largest attended social events in the history of St. Jerome's Catholic congregation was held at Turner Hall Wednesday night, the occasion being the fourteenth annual tea party, supper and dance. A large sum was realized from the benefit affair, the money to be devoted to the building fund. The supper was served from 5 to 8 o'clock by the ladies of the church, and the tables were crowded at all times. During the evening in various part of the hall there were booths arranged for a means of entertainment, and a feature was the

Dancing was from the hour of 8 o'clock until 1, and it is estimated that there were between 200 and 300 couples on the floor. Jenkins' Orchestra furnished the music. Altogether that affair was one of the most pleasing social events ever held by any church or society in Charleroi. The members of each Catholic society in Charleroi constituted the committee in charge.

The negative debaters were Edwin Easton and George Osborne. The officers of the Stratford Literary society are: President, Warren Trew; secretary, Mary Gass; reporter, Joseph Franks.

A little ripple of excitement was caused yesterday in Monessen by the closing of one of the largest clothing establishments of the town. It was ascertained that buying too heavily caused the trouble. This made necessary the drastic sale which commenced today at the store, 505 Schoonmaker avenue, Monessen, where former prices have been unmercifully slaughtered in a strong and powerful endeavor to reduce stocks at any and all cost. Street car fare will be paid on purchases as small as $1.50 to give the buyers of Charleroi the same opportunity accorded the public in Monessen. Money refunded for any reason.

ROADS THE SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

"Coming as I do from a rural county I appreciate the importance of good roads."—John K. Tener in accepting the nomination for Governor, June 22, 1910.

While Governor-elect Tener can only in a general way recommend to the Legislative body of the State, the importance of good roads, it is up to the local authorities to put in practical operation the suggestion of the Governor-elect.

The supervisors of Fallowfield township deserve especial mention because they are engaged at the present time in making a road that will fill all the requirements suggested by Mr. Tener, and it is now up to the borough of Charleroi to make good the boast that has gone over the country broadcast that it is a town of up-to-date ideas.

The Lincoln avenue extension that connects with the Fallowfield township road is in a wretched condition. There is more traffic over that part of the road than on any country road in the county. Is Charleroi going to let Fallowfield township lead her in progressive acts that are of such vital importance to the well being of the town?

Edward Callaghan, Fallowfield, Pa. Nov. 2, 1910.

Home Capital
In urging the establishment of
advancement of Uniontown, the Merald of that town advises the investment of home capital, rather than
the payment of bonuses to induce outside concerns to come in. Union-
an unusual number of wealthy
people for a town of its size, and the Merald's suggestion that these capitalists seek and create an investment for their surplus funds in their home
community, instead of going outside
for an investment, is most timely.
The same argument that applies to
Uniontown also applies to Charleroi.
Our town, however, lacks the accumu-
lations of capital that Uniontown has,
people whose savings constitute a big
aggregate. During the past years
large sums of money from Charleroi
have been invested in outside enter-
have proven doubtful. The same in-
prises at home would not only have
had every opportunity of success,
but would have yielded a lawful percentage on the investment.
Charleroi cannot hope to subsidize any
here; neither can it offer better op-
communities where labor is cheaper,
taxes lower, and transportation facilities equally as good. What Charleroi
promote. The field is open, and on
and prosperity.

Postmaster General Hitchcock will make another tour, and is about to introduce the parcel post in this country. It is stated that Postmaster General will recommend the establishment of this service in his forthcoming report and ask Congress to authorize the delivery of rural routes of parcels weighing as high as 11
pounds which is the weight limit for
the international parcel post. This
form of service, it is maintained, can
be conducted with little if any addi-
will not require the appointment of
more carriers, for those already em-

in the way of horses and wagons to
ordinary mail. Rarely is the latter of
a small portion of the mail space in the carrier's wagon. A rural parcel post
conducted, probably would lead the de-
system.

Investigation has disclosed the fact
that the most determined opposition to the parcel post does not come from the Express Trust, but from the
who see in the parcel post undue competition with the big mail order
larger cities. It has been divulged that organized and systematic opposition, which has been more or less secret, has been successfully directed against the parcel post project, and it
potent influence upon the Congressman than that of the "express companies." This opposition, however, is not warranted in view of the larger benefits the parcel post will bring to the whole country, and when the situation is thoroughly understood by the people, the demand for the parcel post will so greatly overshadow the
speedily forthcoming.

Notions are mostly nice things to
sidered. The Pittsburgh Railway com-took a notion to fix the bridge at the upper end of town and that notion
causes people to walk in mud temporarily but the notion will aid traffic.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch and the Pittsburgh Gazette Times are actually quarreling. And all about a thing
of such minor importance, as the Senatorship.

more eggs, ordinary people might
high cost of living, most of the people might have turkey for Thanksgiving.

or winter. In the summer you have vacation, and in the winter you have
the other on the average pocketbook.

The suggestion that John D. give
fined and didn't pay, has been re-
all, the money is tainted.

The statement is made now that
of marrying well. They have learned
more how to deceive the men.

To his old job of collecting fares,
Thus from his eminence he falls,
And from his glory swerves—
All summer he's curving balls
While now he's bawling curves.

Doc Cook says he'll prove it. Mt.
McKinley is still an objective point.

It is said that the poets of America
for wages.

We would rather be a friend to an insipid cigar smoker than a friend to an apology for such a man.

of local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedy.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, it is shut off from the middle ear, perfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be calmed out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. This cause out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Mall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN AT THE COYLE TONIGHT

Jollity, tender sentiment, lively dialogue, spectacular situations, thrilling climaxes and poetic justice—all are prettily blended in ancient-honored "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which the renowned Stetson company will offer at the Coyle Theatre this afternoon and tonight. The Stetson company is the acknowledged leader in the production of Harriet Beecher Stowe's masterpiece. The cast is large in numbers and well distributed. Special ties glitter through the evening like stars in a wintry sky. In the Leon Washburn Stetson company there are all kinds of dramatic greatness.

Eddie Butz, who last summer was employed here by the Charleroi Coal works, who is now attending State college, was a visitor here Wednesday and a part of Thanksgiving. He came west to Pittsburgh to see the U.

base for the Lutheran team of the past summer.

Mushroom Parties Have Come and Gone With Great Regularity to Satisfy Personal Greed and Grievances - Senator Oliver Announces For Re-election.

John K. Tener was elected Governor of Pennsylvania by a plurality of 33,484 votes. John M. Reynolds, the Republican lieutenant governor-elect, had a plurality of 122,018, and Henry Houck was re-elected secretary of internal affairs by a plurality of 175,892 votes. The mendacious raid made upon Mr. Tener at the wind-up of the contest reduced his plurality considerably, but the votes given to the other candidates on the Republican State ticket established beyond question that the fight was personal and in no sense political. The principles and policies of the regular Republican organization in Pennsylvania was approved in a substantial way. The leadership of the Republican party in the State was given a clear bill of health and in the reduced plurality given to Mr. Tener the voters were given an exhibition of what the voters when the self-seekers under their own banners to clear the way for their own advancement. In the entire State the official figures show that Mr. Tener received 415,611 votes. Edwin S. Stuart, four years ago received 506,415 votes, or 90,807 votes more than were cast for Mr. Tener. Four years ago Lewis Emery, Jr., a frantic reformer and the accepted leader of the political discontents of the State, polled 458,954 votes, or 73,927 more votes than were polled for W. H. Berry at the recent State contest. John M. Reynolds, the lieutenant governor-elect, received a total of 429,874 votes while D. Clarence Gibbons, the perpetual place-hunter who has been whipped for every place from ward constable to the office to which he last aspired, received 207,856 votes, or a difference of 122,018 in favor of Mr. Reynolds. Hardly sufficient margin of justification for the wrecking of the Democracy of the State.

There are indications, however, that the Democracy will refuse to stay wrecked. That ancient organization really fattens on defeat and political parties have come and gone with great regularity ever since the voters of the State refused to send John W. Wamaker to the United States Senate. With Mr. Wamaker in the United States Senate the new discontents would have been the regular organization and until that wonderful feat is in some way accomplished political parties must be expected to come and go just so long as the voters are willing to be fooled and tricked into following the false pretenders. The floating of new political parties in Pennsylvania became a fine art away back in 1895. Before that time there had been the Greenback party, the Prohibition party and the Republican and Democratic parties. The Greenbackers retired that year and in their place came the Peoples party, the Liberty party, the Honest Government party and the Socialist party. The several new parties died during the next four years and in their stead came the Anti-Machine party, the Citizens party, the Reform party and the Socialist party without the labor contingent. During the next four years a majority of these mushroom parties gave up the ghost and were followed by the Commonwealth party, the Lincoln party, the Reform party and the Union Labor party. And now, at the present moment, or at least at the recent State contest we find that several of the political parties have passed to eternal rest and in their stead we have the Keystone party, the Industrialists party and the Workingmen's League party with the Republican party, the Democratic
